Appo. Beats Staunton River

Appomattox County High School beat the Staunton River Golden Eagles 5-2 last Wednesday in the season baseball opener for both teams. It was a District IV game played at Staunton River.

Appomattox got off to a 2-0 lead in the first inning and held that until the fifth inning when Staunton River scored one time.

Appomattox then rallied for three runs in the seventh for a 5-1 margin and gave up one more run to the Eagles in their half of the inning.

Steve Almond was the winning pitcher for Appomattox. He was relieved by Dennis Wilkerson in the fifth and did a good job, finishing up. Mike Morton took the loss for Staunton River.

The Appomattox pitching gave up only two hits to the Golden Eagles and the defense made only one error. Staunton River committed four errors and their pitching allowed three hits.

Plicky Williams, Steve Almond and Sammy Page each had a hit for Appomattox. R. Garrett, Almond, and Page each scored a run and Williams crossed the plate two times to account for the Appomattox runs.

Lipscomb scored both of the Staunton River runs and had one hit and Lloyd had the other hit.
